My dear friend, I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well at present, but I am not yet recovered from the effects of the cold I caught in London. I am, however, getting on better every day. Oct 28 Chapman arrived night returned, good morning & took note of them, also of his for the present but could not see him.
He then wrote for me Chapman's & J. A. Adams and myself and wife.

I have known it done, even from our midst among pagans. One day I will finish. For surely it will finish itself.
